

Pre-assessment for Gale Opposing Viewpoints in Context

1. How do you access the Gale Opposing Viewpoints in Context database:
 - a. Google "Gale Opposing Viewpoints in Context database"
 - b. Go to Pioneer Library, click on Gale 9-12 Reference Collection, then select Opposing Viewpoints in Context
 - c. Look up Gale Opposing Viewpoints in Context in the library catalog
 - d. Ask the teacher librarian

2. How do you find the citation for an article in Gale Opposing Viewpoints in Context database?
 - a. Look for the Source Citation at the bottom of the article or in the Tools section
 - b. Put the citation information into Easy Bib
 - c. Copy the URL into your Works Cited page
 - d. Find the information in the Bibliography

3. What kind of information is available in the On This Page feature?
 - a. News and magazines
 - b. Videos and images
 - c. Statistics
 - d. All of the above

4. What is another database you can use if you are looking for various points of view about a topic?
 - a. CultureGrams
 - b. World Book Encyclopedia
 - c. EBSCO Points of View
 - d. Biography Reference Center

5. How can you refine your search using the Advanced Search option?
 - a. Search using Boolean phrases
 - b. Search for full-text only
 - c. Search by publication date
 - d. All of the above